RHY Crisis Shelters

As part of the contracted portfolio of services for runaway and homeless youth, crisis shelters provide emergency shelter and crisis intervention services for youth who are between the ages of 16 and 21. In cases where family reunification is not possible, crisis staff collaborate with youth to locate appropriate transitional and long-term placements. Youth are housed short-term for up to 30 days with the possibility to extend for an additional 30 days.

Crisis shelters are open 24 hours a day, seven days per week.
